PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This home is a brick blockbuster and a home you'll be proud to own! This one-owner ranch is loaded with extras including newly finished hardwood floors, excellent curb appeal, neutral decor, a spacious family room with cork flooring, a built-in bar, and a wood-burning fireplace. This home is a real space saver with lots of pocket doors. The rooms are large and very open and easy to clean. Throughout the home, you will find lots of windows overlooking the nicely landscaped yard that add natural sunlight. The eat-in kitchen has a stainless steel oven and a recessed ceiling light under the soffet. The kitchen also has lots of cabinets and a desk area. The step-down living room has built-in book cases. The living room has recessed lighting and a bay window. All of the bedrooms have large closets and cove ceilings. Two if the bedrooms are large and have recently finished hardwood floors. The third bedroom is spacious with a private bathroom and could make a great office. The ceramic tile bathroom has a glass-enclosed tub. This home also has a private rear yard with mature landscaping. This home also has a two car attached garage. This home is very well insulated and stays very cool. This home also has a great location with easy access to shopping and church. This home has Crossgates Elementary - an excellent elementary school. This home is also close to Swan Creek Park.
